- Open-09: Player born on or after Jan 1 st , 2014	The section for female players only will be called: Girl-05, Girl-06,...

- Open-All: for all players (referred to as Open Section). The Open Section is reported to FIDE for rating.
- Parents: for parents of RoyalChess Center and parents of players participating in the tournament.

- Players who have won prizes at national and international youth chess championships (individuals or teams) or in the gifted-young Ho Chi Minh team must register to compete in at least 1 section upper compared to their age (except for the U05, U06, U07, and Open). Players of international level and national teams are required to compete in the Open Section.
- Competition format:
  - Time for each game: rapid chess 15 minutes plus a 5-second increment starting from move one.
  - Pairing using the Swiss-manager program according to the Round-Robin System or Swiss System (depending on the number of players). The section must have at least seven players to start. If there are less than seven players, the organizers will combine that section (still present enough medals as the original).
- 7-10 players: Round-Robin system.
- 11 players or more: Swiss system 7 rounds.
- Ranking individually
  - Round-Robin System: points, Sonneborn-Berger, direct counter, number of games won, number of games won by Black. If there is a tie and a medal dispute, a blitz game will be played with White 6 minutes, Black 5 minutes and if it's a draw, Black wins.
  - Swiss system: points, direct counter, Buchholz cut 1 bottom, the number of games won, most games as Black, the number of games won by playing Black. If there is a tie and a medal dispute, a blitz game will be played: White 6 minutes, Black 5 minutes, if it's a draw, Black wins.
- Team ranking for sections (for at least three teams in one section): respectively according to the total rank of three players, the total score of three players (if still equal, consider the highest individual player's ranking); the total rank of two players, the total score of two players (if still equal, consider the highest individual player rank).
- Team ranking for all of the tournament: by the number of gold, silver, and bronze medals. Teams that participate in all sections from Open-05 to Open-All (except Parents) are team ranked and the team prize will be awarded when there are at least two qualified teams. All RoyalChess Training Center branches will be counted as one team.
- Lost by fouls: players commits the 3rd foul will lose the game (for all sections).
- The current chess rules by the General Department of Sports will be applied.

4. Prizes:

- For the separated male and female sections: players ranked 1, 2 and 3-4 (of each section) will receive gold, silver and bronze medals and gifts from the RoyalChess Center.
- If the number of players is 20 or more: players ranked 5th to 10th (of each section) will receive gifts from the RoyalChess Center.
- If the number of players is less than 20: players ranked 5th to 7th (of each section) will receive gifts from the RoyalChess Center.
